

Survey of New Hampshire High Schools
As of June 30, 2013
Economics Requirement. Standard 6 within the Curriculum Frameworks

High Schools Clearly Requiring Economics and a Stand-alone Course in Personal Finance

Bedford High School
Newfound Regional High School
Hindsdale High School

High Schools Clearly Requiring Economics and Offering Personal Finance as an Elective

Alvirne High School	Nute High School
Belmont High School	Oyster River High School
Exeter High School	Portsmouth High School
Goffstown High School	Prospect High School
Gorham High School	Raymond High School
Groveton High School	Spaulding High School
Hillsboro High School	Timberlane High School
Hollis-Brookline High School	White Mountain Regional High School
Kearsarge High School	Windham High School
Kennett High School	Winnisquam Regional High School
Lebanon High School

High Schools Indicating an Economics Requirement and Offering Personal Finance as an Elective Using Different Course Titles

Berlin High School	American Government & Economics - required Personal Finance - elective
Campbell High School	Community and Individual - required Personal Finance - elective
Coe Brown Academy	General or Honors Economics - required Personal Finance Math - elective
Conant High School	College Prep Economics - required Financial Algebra - elective
Concord High School	Economics - required Independent Living - elective Money Management - elective
ConVal High School	American Economics, Current Economic Issues, Economic Foundations (two are required) Consumer Education - required
Dover High School	Intro to Economics or Honors Intro to Economics - required

Survey of New Hampshire High Schools
As of June 30, 2013
Economics Requirement. Standard 6 within the Curriculum Frameworks

	College Prep Math and Money Management - elective Consumer Math - elective LifeSkills Algebra - elective
Fall Mountain Regional High School	Government & Economics - required Personal Finance - elective
Gilford High School	Economics, Consumer Economics - required Business Dynamics - elective
Hanover High School	Personal Finance - elective Contemporary American History and Modern America - required Geopolitics and Global Studies - required Economics & Public Policy - elective Note: 11th grade 1/2 year requirement. Economics is a curricular strand in both the required and electives
Hopkinton High School	Economics - required On My Own - elective
Inter-Lakes High School	Introduction to Economics - required Consumer Financial Management - elective Advanced Personal and Business Finance - elective
Keene High School	National Perspectives Foundations - required Consumer Concepts - elective Investing, Banking and Your Money - elective
Kingswood Regional High School	American Government/Economics- required Personal-Finance- elective
Laconia High School	Citizenship: Government in the Economy- required
Londonderry High School	CP Economics - required Independent living and money management- elective CP financial services - elective C P financial planning - elective
Manchester Memorial High School	Economics-levels one, two, three and four- required Business Math- elective
Merrimack Valley High School	Economics - required Independent Living - elective

Survey of New Hampshire High Schools
As of June 30, 2013
Economics Requirement. Standard 6 within the Curriculum Frameworks

Intro to Business Education and Economics - elective
Note: open to all, suggested for 9th & 10th grade. May be used as Economics requirement
 Math Matters Levels A & B - elective

Moultonboro High School	Economics- required Independent living- elective
Nashua North and South High Schools	Blueprint Economics- required On Your Own- elective Consumer Math- elective Financial Services- elective Money Sense- elective
Pelham High School	Economics and Civics- required Personal Finance- elective
Pembroke High School	Civics and Economics- required Independent Living- elective
Pinkerton Academy	Intro to Economics level A, B or C- required Consumer economics- elective Practical Math for the Consumer- elective Financial planning- elective Banking and Credit- elective Independent Living- elective
Plymouth High School	Economics- required Living On Your Own- elective Employment, Math, Reading, Independent Life Skills- elective
Profile High School	Civic/Economics- required Life- required 11th grade Personal Finance and Life Choices- required eighth-grade
Salem High School	Economics/Career Exploration- required Life after Salem High- elective Personal Money Management- elective
Sunapee High School	Economics- required Independent Living- elective

Survey of New Hampshire High Schools
As of June 30, 2013
Economics Requirement. Standard 6 within the Curriculum Frameworks

High Schools Clearly Requiring Economics Only

Franklin High School	Somersworth High School
Merrimack High School	Stevens High School
Newmarket High School	Winnacunnet High School

Course Variations with Potentially Multiple and Different Requirements and Electives

Bow High School	American Studies, World Studies - elements of economics included in the description Macroeconomics- elective AP economics- elective Personal Finance- elective Finance II- elective
Epping High School	Life Centered Education I & II- elective and prerequisite Business Management- elective
John Stark Regional High School	Economics- elective Small Business Management- elective Personal Finance- elective Note: any two of the above courses meets the Economics requirement Consumer Math- elective
Littleton High School	Government and economics- required Advisory Program- has elements of personal finance included
Manchester Central High School	Economics- required, but other courses will satisfy the requirement Intro to business - elective, will satisfy the Economics requirement Marketing- elective, will satisfy the Economics requirement Business Math I & II - elective Banking and Credit- elective
Mascenic High School	Intro to Civics and Economics- required Personal finance- elective (only offered every other year)
Mascoma Valley Regional High School	American Systems- required Transitions- elective
Milford High School	American Studies- grades nine and 10-required World Studies- grade 11-required Principles of Business and Entrepreneurship- elective

Survey of New Hampshire High Schools
As of June 30, 2013
Economics Requirement. Standard 6 within the Curriculum Frameworks

	Personal Finance and Post Secondary Planning- elective Marketing 1,2,3 - elective
Monadnock High School	Intro to Business Fundamentals of Independent Learning Intro to Business Management Personal Finance Applied Economics Note: can all be used to meet the economics requirement
Newport High School	Applied Economics, Economics- must choose one to meet the economics requirement Honors Economics- offered every other year Career and Adult Roles- elective
Sanborn Regional High School	Financial Skills for You- elective
Souhegan Regional High School	World Studies, World Literature- required-meets the economics requirement Financial Algebra- elective Personal Investing and Financing- elective
Wilton - Lyndenboro High School	U.S, Government and Economics- required Consumer Math- elective-prerequisite: must complete at least two high school math credits
Woodsville High School	Economics-College Prep Intro to Business Personal Finance Note: any of these courses will satisfy the economics requirement

Unable to Locate Program of Studies on the School's Website

Colebrook High School
Farmington High School
Lin-Wood High School
Lisbon High School
Manchester West High School
Pittsburg High School